The Real Story of Stone Soup Ying Chang Compestine

A stingy fisherman always makes his three young helpers do all his work. One day he scolds the “lazy boys” for forgetting to provide lunch. “Don’t worry,” they say. “We can make stone soup.” The boys dig a hole and fill it with water and “flavored” stones. They trick the fisherman into making bowls and chopsticks, and fetching salt and sesame oil. While he’s busy, they stir in bird eggs, add wild vegetables, and slip fish into the soup. By the time the old man returns, they have a feast fit for a king. To this day, “Egg Drop Stone Soup” is a traditional dish in southeast China. A recipe is included.

Angela Latham:

As a pupil exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's spirit or real their pastime. They just do what the educator want, like asked to go to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring and also can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this The Real Story of Stone Soup can make you truly feel more interested to read.
