True love can be a dangerous thing. Especially when it comes in the form of a stunning Eurasian male with soul piercing eyes, and an irresistible mystique. Up-and-coming graphic novelist Dane Takahashi is a man who not only possesses immense talent, but a dark, grisly secret. Unaware of his shadowy past, Jeneda Larkson is effortlessly drawn to him from their very first meeting, and it doesn't take long before she submits both her body and emotions in a passionate love affair. Intrigued by his mysterious nature, Jeneda finds herself wanting to know more about him. But it Isn't until Dane is compelled by inescapable guilt, that he finally reveals his sordid past. Shocked to discover that his revelation involves someone dear to her heart, Jeneda finds herself morally torn and ridden with inescapable guilt. But she must decide whether to expose the man she loves, or harbor his morbid secret and forever alter her life.
