Can mitered corners really be easy? Yes! Create a "frame" using folded fabric strips, any 90° ruler, a marking pen, and a sewing machine. Then fold back the straight portion of the mitered frame to give it a charming scalloped effect.

- Skip the math--simple alignment guarantees accuracy every time
- Choose from nine distinctive projects: quilts, table toppers, a tote, a pillow, and more
- Pair strips of different colors and turn back the bias strip to reveal a contrasting underside
