Dialectics of Human Nature in Marx's Philosophy Tabak

A scholarly exploration of Marx's thought without any favorable or critical ideological agendas, this book opposes the compartmentalization of Marx's thought into various competing doctrines, such as historical materialism, dialectical materialism, and different forms of economic determinism. It highlights Marx's humanism; however, instead of pitting Marx's humanism against materialism, dialectical and historical, this book demonstrates their unity in a novel way. The method employed is exegetical, with an emphasis on Marx's own dialectic method. This approach differentiates the present work from the currently popular interpretations, which (mis)interpret Marx through the prism of analytical philosophy.
