History of the Fifteenth Regiment New Jersey Volunteers (Classic Reprint) Alanson A. Haines

As eighteen and more years have passed away since the events here recorded took place, it is difficult to present anything like a complete history, giving to every gallant man his due. Should it be marked that, vfhile some have honorable mention, others equally deserving are scarcely more than remembered by name, it is because their actions vrere unknown to the compiler, or have passed from his recollection. Where errors are discovered, a note of them will be gladly received for correction in any future edition. The rolls appended to the history have been preparedi with much care by Captain James S. Mc Danolds, State Librarian at Trenton, and Adjutant Edmund D. Halsey, of Eockaway. This volume could never have reached its present fullness without the assistance of Adjutant Halsey, who has made many valuable contributions, and from whose notes of statistics and diary large extracts have been made.
