Rage against the machine Ennemis publics (French Edition) Brice Tollemer

L'histoire de Rage Against the Machine est celle d'une explosion permanente. Explosion qui débuta au début des années quatre-vingt-dix quand Zach de la Rocha, Tom Morello, Tim Commerford et Brad Wilk lancèrent à la face du monde leur premier brûlot révolutionnaire, à base de colère, de textes incendiaires et de guitare enflammée. Une manière de dynamiter le rock comme on n'en avait pas vue peut-être depuis les Clash. De concerts enragés au soutien de nombreuses causes activistes et politiques, les Rage ont proposé tout au long de cette décennie un nouveau type de son. Toujours à la limite de la rupture, ils ne pouvaient se diriger que vers leur propre implosion, comme cela se produisit en 2000. Sept années plus tard, ils décident de se reformer pour une série de concerts exceptionnels. En attendant l'arrivée d'un futur album ?
