100 Hikes in Colorado (100 Hikes Series) Scott S. Warren

Colorado, the most mountainous of the lower forty-eight states, is synonymous with good hiking. But with so many fantastic trails, the real challenge is narrowing down your choices! This guide makes it simple, by providing complete descriptions for the one hundred best trails in the state. Each hike includes a particularly pleasing feature, whether its a river trail meandering over the eastern Plains, a charming lake on the slopes of the snow-capped San Juans, or a descent into the slick-rock canyons of the Colorado Plateau. A mix of popular and lesser-known trails can be found in this collection, which will delight casual and serious hikers alike. This book includes: complete trail descriptions with maps and photos; hikes for a variety of energy and skill levels; data on elevation gain, round-trip times, and best seasons to go; includes both day hikes and overnight backpacks; and advice on trail safety and wilderness etiquette.
