A Baptist Manual of Polity and Practice Norman H. Maring, Winthrop S. Hudson

An invaluable resource for local church ministry, which combines fresh insights into the New Testament concept of the church with thoughtful interpretations of Baptist history and tradition. Maring explores hallmarks of Baptist identity, Biblical roots of Baptist doctrine, qualifications and responsibilities of church membership, fresh perspectives on baptism and the theology of the Lord's Supper, alternative structures for church administration, the role of the pastor in a changing society, and revisions in denominational structure. The author also devotes a section to channels through which churches can work cohesively within the denomination or engage in Christian ecumenical outreach.
