Excerpt from Modernism and the Vatican

Some three years ago the study on "Religious Life in Europe," of which a number of articles have appeared since regularly in the Northwestern Christian Advocate, first drew my attention to the present phase of difficulty within the Papal Church. Later Dr. James M. Buckley, editor of the Christian Advocate (New York), published an extensive review written by the author on Dr. Josef Schnitzer's important work, "Did Christ Found the Papacy?" ("Hat Jesus das Papsttum gestiftet?") The extreme interest of the subject, then shown by many notable students in the comment upon the review, cast its spell upon me from the very first; and I resolved to make it a matter of more detailed study.
