The great privilege--and the great difficulty--of the Christian life is keeping company with Jesus in all times and in all situations. In light of our struggles, we sometimes lose sight of Jesus in our lives, or we feel a sense of abandonment. With this in mind, Smallbones revisits Gospel stories of Jesus's interaction with lepers, adulterers, disciples, and others seeking healing. Her discussion of these stories provides insight and encouragement for a closer relationship with God as we deal with struggles in our own lives.
