The Florence Collectibles: An Era of Elegance (A Schiffer Book for Collectors) Doug Foland

The lovely Florence figurines, made in Pasadena, California, by Florence Ward and Florence Ceramics Company from 1939 into the 1960s are featured in this first book on the subject. The history of the Florence collection includes complete details about the early factory, the step-by-step process used in the creation of figurines, and 400 color photos of the figurines. A new price guide reflects today's market.
