Olivia Childers embarks on a harrowing journey when she inherits a dilapidated cabin on Puget Sound's Whidbey Island. While restoring the cabin, her path takes an unexpected turn as she stumbles across old family secrets of love and betrayal that force her to face her own demons. Disturbing nightly noises send her spiraling down a dark road of seclusion and nightmares. Is it her past or her present that's haunting her? Or is it someone else's? Olivia finds herself in a world where solitude is everywhere and nowhere, deceit is truth and past is future. The tortured souls on this journey must find a way out of the cages of their own making. Their choices and ultimate decisions interweave, resonating beyond the boundaries of time and death. Whidbey Island is a spiritual odyssey exploring the ultimate question: Is reality what it seems?
