Haunting of Louisiana, The Barbara Sillery

Spirits of voodoo queens, pirates, madams, singing monks, and the Loup garou (the Cajun werewolf) inhabit impenetrable swamps and the hidden courtyards of the French Quarter. “The Haunting of Louisiana” is a one-hour quest to unravel the mystery behind La Belle Dame Creole’s legendary reputation for more ghosts per square inch than anywhere else in the country. From a lost little girl trapped in the mirror of a Bourbon Street hotel to a former madam still plying her trade in a local cemetery, these spirits are all traced to real people, who have come back to haunt their former abodes. A ghostly decorator still fond of offering advice, a former politician trying to make his vote count, the spirits of a tragic love triangle at an Irish pub, the powerful spells of the Queen of Voodoo – their presence is palpable. Hear from those who have encountered them and continue to interact with these lively spirits.
