O Anticristo (Portuguese Edition) Friedrich Nietzsche

O Anticristo (em alemão: Der Antichrist) é um livro do autor alemão Friedrich Nietzsche, considerado uma das mais ácidas críticas de Nietzsche ao cristianismo, célebre pela frase: "O Evangelho morreu na cruz". Seu título original em alemão, Der Antichrist, pode significar tanto "O Anticristo" quanto "O Anti-cristão". Ele não se baseou na figura bíblica do Anticristo. Nietzsche foca sua crítica na religião cristã. Ele faz diversos ataques tentando mostrar uma suposta deturpação por Paulo de Tarso e pelo catolicismo. Não obstante, critica também Lutero, sobre o qual afirma ter perdido a grande oportunidade de evitar a decadência alemã. Sobre o budismo, ele afirma ser a religião do nada, na figura de Buda, o que se abdicou de tudo o que era humano. Contudo, ele predica que o budismo é ruim, mas afirma que o cristianismo é um mal ainda pior, pois tenta elevar os chandala (termo hinduísta para designar a pária, casta inferior). Nietzsche faz uma comparação entre os livros sagrados cristãos, e o Código de Manu, de origem brâmane. Considerando, o segundo, demasiado superior e que: "esta sim pode ser considerada uma filosofia". Dentre as outras citações que faz em seu livro destacamos, positivamente para Fiódor Dostoiévski e Goethe e depreciativamente para Kant e os já aponta. Ele afirma em seu prólogo: "Este livro pertence aos homens mais raros. Talvez nenhum deles sequer esteja vivo. É possível que se encontrem entre aqueles que compreendem o meu "Zaratustra": como eu poderia misturar-me àqueles aos quais se presta ouvidos atualmente? – Somente os dias vindouros me pertencem. Alguns homens nascem póstumos."
