Where I Belong Mary Downing Hahn

No one is kind to sixth-grader Brendan Doyle: his foster mother, his teachers, his classmates, and especially the thugs who bully him. He takes refuge in books, drawing, carving, and daydreaming. When Brendan stumbles upon an old man near his tree house in the Virginia woods, he is quick to believe that this is the magical Green Man, guardian spirit of the forest. Brendan's need to immerse himself in his fantasy world becomes more acute, until he meets a girl with secrets of her own who may just keep his feet on the ground.

Steven Atkins:

As a student exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library or even make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's heart and soul or real their leisure activity. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to the library. They go to there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring and also can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important for you. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Where I Belong can make you truly feel more interested to read.
