Santiaguinos (Spanish Edition) Roberto Rabi

Roberto Rabi nos entrega una serie de relatos llenos de instantes inquietantes que por momentos pareciera que recorren caminos ya conocidos, pero que nos sorprenden con quiebres inesperados que dan fuerza y vida a lo que se nos está contando. Notables son los pasajes en que nos muestra la intimidad de las barras bravas o de fanáticos del fútbol, que viven los partidos de un modo especial y desconocido para muchos. Las emociones y decepciones por los resultados de un partido que pueden cambiar los días e incluso la vida de los seguidores de alguno de los equipos grandes. Lo que asoma como una luz ennegrecedora en los relatos de Roberto Rabi, es el acercamiento hacia el círculo más íntimo de los personajes, detalles, fracciones y momentos que por ser cotidianos y comunes, pasan desapercibidos para los demás: «...continué con mi vida de manera tradicional, viviendo el luto de modo clásico. Usando terno y corbata negros. Hablando bajito, combinando una mirada doliente con muecas parecidas a sonrisas de agradecimiento cada vez que alguien me daba el pésame. Qué costumbre más espantosa». Recuperando aquellos instantes que se nos escapan atrapados por la rutina. Cuando en «Morrigan» el narrador nos dice «Ahora sólo veía en el horizonte una bandeja con pan tostado, café y huevos revueltos», nos adentramos en la pequeñez de la vida rutinaria de una pareja, en lo minúsculo que se vuelve el futuro cuando la incomunicación de la pareja es permanente, en cómo la vida puede ser aplastante, matando los sueños y expectativas, como una vida enferma que no es capaz de ver más lejos porque la esperanza ha muerto. Hay además, en los relatos de Roberto Rabi un tono, un sonido de fondo, una cascada inquietante, una crítica que por momentos es profunda y meditada hacia la sociedad chilena, al modo en que nuestra forma de ser y nuestro modo de pensar nos van aplastando y disminuyendo las capacidades para desarrollarnos. De esta forma nos explica e invita a meditar con frases como «vivimos en un país pusilánime incapaz de hacerse cargo de sus miserias», que suena como una bofetada y un llamado de atención que resuena en todos los relatos. Una selección de buenos relatos, que no debe dejar indiferente a nadie.
