Steps to Good Grammar, 169 Lessons Exercises & Tests/011655Ef - 2nd edition

This newly revised and updated edition will help your students master the basic elements of English grammar and usage. Designed as a comprehensive grammar program, the 25 units cover all grammar presented from elementary school through the seventh grade. The 169 reproducible lessons, exercises, and tests will lead your students through verbs, nouns, prepositional phrases, and more, with particular emphasis on sentence parts, and structure. A comprehensive system of review, analysis, and application ensures that students understand the material and can use the grammatical elements correctly. Each unit focuses on one new grammatical element, explained with easy-to-follow definitions, instructions, and sample sentences. All exercises and texts are accompanied by teacher guide pages with objectives, teaching strategies, and complete answer keys. After successfully completing this program, your students will be prepared to use basic English at the competency level required of adults. Help your students gain a fundamental understanding of English grammar with the easy-to-follow lessons!
