Comunidad, conflicto y eucaristía en la corinto romana (Coleccion Teologica Contemporanea) (Spanish Edition) Panayotis Coutsoumpos

No basta conocer sólo el contexto inmediato del texto en el conjunto canónico, sino también en su entorno socio-religioso. La exégesis bíblica se enriquece cuando se ve desde su trasfondo social y político. El autor nos introduce con maestría en este libro en el significado de las comidas sociales en el mundo grecorromano, la posición social de los primeros cristianos de Corinto, la estratificación social de la comunidad y el contexto social del ministerio y la misión de Pablo, de modo que se pueda comprender de un modo cabal el concepto cristiano de comunidad y participación unida, ricos y pobres, en la Última Cena del Señor, qué es lo que significa y a qué esperanza apunta. En este sentido, la obra del Dr. Coutsoumpos es pionera en nuestros medios editoriales y estamos seguros que cubrirá un espacio imprescindible en el estudio de una Epístola ya de por sí problemática, por la condición de las personas a quienes se envía y de su propio contenido temático.
