Asha must make a decision and steps knee deep into the game she always managed to stay away from. Joc is now the head of the infamous Terror Squad who is continuously growing. Joc is at the top of his game, but continues to abide by the rules his mentor Big E has taught him. Family first is his motto and no one will come before his family; not even the streets. After his connect is murdered he must set out to find one who will be able to handle his needs. He turns to big E for advice to ensure that he isn't making a deal with the devil that can potentially bring down the empire they both have so carefully built. While balancing the streets and his family life, Joc has begun to feel doubt creep into his heart. He can feel tension building between him and his wife but is unsure why. An all-out war explodes and Joc will do anything to protect his family and his empire. When his wife makes a power move without his knowledge Joc realizes that the game has changed and the stakes have been raised. Jamarcus Simms is filled with hatred for the loss of the only family he had left. His sister, Lisa, was murdered and he knows exactly who is responsible. After reaching out to an old friend who assists him with devising and executing a plan, Jamarcus can now get the revenge that he so desperately craves. As complete chaos erupts once again, will Asha and Joc be able to remain at the top of the game or will Terror Squads reign finally come to an end?
