Voice Perspectives Robert Thayer Sataloff

Dedicated to Dr. G. Paul Moore, whose ground-breaking work in the field of voice formed the foundations for modern voice examination and treatment, this book comprises a collection of the G. Paul Moore Lectures, which take place each year at the Voice Foundation Symposium. These valuable lectures provide a unique window into the thinking and evolution of the field of voice during the past one and a half decades and inspire readers with their insights, high standards, and good humor.
